(1) whether there were complaints regarding the supply of text books to students ;

(2) if so, what was the nature of the complaint ;

(3) the exact date on which all the text books were available to students after the schools were opened last after the vacation ?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—(1) Yes.

(2) That Kerala Malayalam Readers, Revised Edition, Geography of Form I, and Sanskrit texts for the Lower Secondary Department were not available for sale.

(3) It is not possible to furnish any definite information on the point as no such statistics have hitherto been collected.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—May I know whether there is any agreement between the Government and the supplier of books regarding the date of supply?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—There is surely an understanding that the supplier should furnish books by the time the school re-opens. I do not know whether there is any formal agreement.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Was any action taken by the Government?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Government have asked the Director of Public Instruction to ask him why he has not done so.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Was any explanation received?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—We have not yet received any final reply from the Director of Public Instruction.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—With regard to the revised edition did the Government give any previous notice to the publisher or they merely informed him just before re-opening?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I am sorry I want notice.

Panchayats—Judicial powers.

26. Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Will the Government be pleased to state the number and names of Panchayats on which judicial powers were conferred after the present Registrar took charge ?

Mr. P. V. Raphael.—The two Panchayats on which judicial powers were conferred after the Registrar took charge are Nemmara and Ayilur.

Transfer of Head Constables.
